WRUW
CLEVELAND, OHIO

FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dear Reader,

Thanks for picking up The Scene! You Rock!

This fall at WRUW we have a bunch of changes that will both shock and amaze. After almost 40 years of playing the best folk and country Cleveland has to offer, When the Roses Bloom Again will be retired with honor this fall. In its place, Mr. JEG has graciously offered to continue to fill that timeslot with some of his favorite tunes on Laying Down Tracks, Thursdays 8-10pm. Also moving around is Roll Away The Dew. After more than 30 years in its timeslot Saturday morning, Jimmie Wilson will be moving to Wednesday nights from 7:30-9:30pm. Roll Away The Dew will also have a new name: Cousin Jimmie's Songbook.

In the not so country and folk section, many other shows that have been staples of WRUW's programming for years are also mix and matching. In a unprecedented 4 way switch (implemented by Chasing Infinity's Ed) Maximum Consumption, The 2 Tone Army, Metal Meltdown and Americana Breakdown all have new days and times. Check it out the new lineup in the following pages.

However, the more things change the more they stay the same. The Defend Cleveland show will continue to defend Cleveland sports like a mama grizzly defends her cubs (or in this case Indians) at its normal timeslot. Our classic Indie Rock block Sunday mornings from 8am to noon is staying put as well as Children of the Metal Movement on Tuesday nights, if you aren't feeling so Indie.

But don't let the old stuff be all you listen to. New shows are here and they include elctronica on FOR DA GURWZ, indie and folk from The Kitchen Sink on Thursday mornings. No matter what you like to listen to WRUW has What You Need (Wednesdays 12:30am-2:00am). Also don't forget that if you miss a show you can download it for up to a week from our online database at wruw.org.

I also would like to take the time to thank everyone for coming out to Studio-A-Rama XXX a few weeks back. We love putting the event on and booking great bands and hope to do it for another 30 years. One of the reasons we love to put it on is a way to say thanks to all those who donated at this year's Telethon.

So Thanks and Keep on Keepin' On

T Nick Domitrovic
General Manager
